

COME CHANGE THE WORLD FROM HERE

USF is the only university that puts you in the center of the city that invents tomorrow. Here, you'll get the best of Jesuit education — with a San Francisco twist. Come join our vibrant campus community, learn how to make a difference, and graduate prepared to lead and succeed.

100+

USF comprises five schools and more than 100 degree programs in the arts and sciences, law, management, education, and nursing and health professions. Twenty-one interdisciplinary centers and institutes explore our global community through internships, service learning, and research opportunities.

TOP TIER

USF ranks as a first-tier national university in 2017 U.S. News & World Report, and appears in 'The Best 381 Colleges: 2017 Edition' by the Princeton Review.

#2

Ranked #2 in the nation for campus ethnic diversity by 2016 U.S. News & World Report.

LEADERS

USF has produced 276 U.S. judges (including four California Supreme Court justices); a former United States senator; a California lieutenant governor; two Pulitzer Prize winners; four Olympic medalists; countless priests, nuns, and other religious leaders; educators; police chiefs; corporate CEOs and entrepreneurs; three NBA Hall of Famers; three NFL Hall of Famers; and Alejandro Toledo, the former president of Peru.

9 IN A ROW

For nine straight years, USF has been named to the President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll by the Corporation for National and Community Service. The honor highlights USF students' service in areas ranging from poverty and homelessness to environmental justice.

#1

For 2017, San Francisco topped Boston, Seattle, and Washington D.C. as the best college town in America. The rankings, from the American Institute for Economic Research, were based on 12 criteria, including social and cultural life, diversity, employment, and economic activity — all of which make San Francisco an exceptional extended classroom for USF students.

FORTY NINE

With students from 49 states and 94 countries, USF reflects the diversity of San Francisco and the richness of the wider world. It's an ideal place to live, learn, and grow.

TOP 3%

According to the federal government College Scorecard, USF alumni have salaries in the top 3% of all college graduates in the country.

47 SQUARE MILES

USF's campus, one block from the exact center of San Francisco's 47 square miles, gives you easy access to pro sporting events, big-name musical acts, downtown internships — everything the city offers is less than 3.5 miles away. Plus, here in Northern California, you're never too far from a redwood forest, a ski slope, or a surfing-friendly beach.

HAPPY GRADUATES

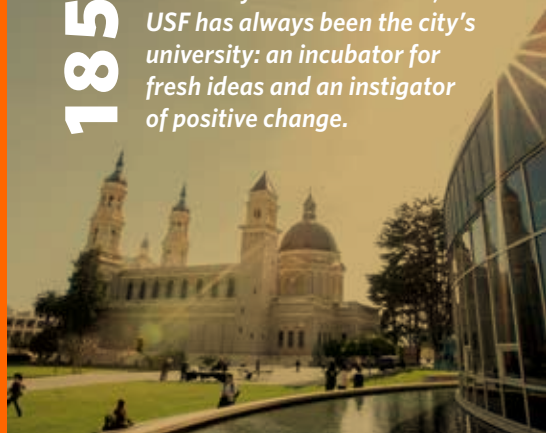

97.9% satisfied or strongly satisfied on graduating student survey.

JESUIT VALUES

In small classes taught by top professors, you'll gain the benefits of our Jesuit values: think critically, communicate clearly, solve complex problems, and turn your learning into positive action. These are the traits that employers want the most — and that the world needs the most. (The Jesuits have a 450-year track record of inspiring students to change the world for the better, in ways both small and large.)

1855

Founded in 1855 as the first university in San Francisco, USF has always been the city's university: an incubator for fresh ideas and an instigator of positive change.
